BURNED TO DEATH

Awful Fate of An Aged Lady Living Near Epworth

Anne Adair, living alone in a cottage near Epworth, met an awful death yesterday morning at her home.

Her dwelling was destroyed by fire, and in the ruins were found the charred bones of a human body.

It is supposed that Mrs. Adair's clothes in some way caught fire and being unable to extinguish the flames she burned to death, together with her home.

This morning Officer Thomas Senteney on his rounds found a man lying in the alley in the rear of the Kentucky Hotel beastly drunk. He took him to jail and searched him, finding a pocket-book containing $4.41, a bank book and check book. The man was J. T. Crockett of Moorfield. He was locked up.

COUNCIL DECIDES

That There Shall Be No Telephone War in Town

For some time the Bell Telephone people have been figuring to get into this city.

They made a proposition to the Maysville Telephone Company, which was not acceptable.

Then the Maysville Company made a counter-proposal, which was turned down by the Bell folks.

This moved the Bell people to seek a franchise at the hands of Council;

And last night the Committee on Laws and Ordinances and the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, with the Mayor and City Attorney added—the Committees comprising eleven of the twelve members of Council—met, and by a vote of 10 to 1 decided that if the Bell folks wanted to get into this city with their lines they must arrange to do so through the Maysville Telephone Company.

It was not deemed advisable to cumber the streets and shut out the daylight with another forest of poles and network of wires.

THE GREAT LAFAYETTE.

"The Great Lafayette" will bring his magnificent company to the Washington Theater Wednesday, March 7th. One is at a loss for words in endeavoring to describe the merits of this gigantic attraction which is headed by the great Lafayette, a man of mystery, who well has earned his Emparor-like cognomen, and it is safe to say that he is the most versatile performer known. His energy in securing new and novel material with which to startle and amuse his audience is equalled by no other in the world of amusement.

"LIVES OF GREAT MEN ALL REMIND US"

The story of how Marshall Field amassed his great fortune may be told in a few words. He had something to sell and advertised it.

G. Hanelcker is unloading a 12,000-bushel barge of coal for the Maysville Water Works. It was left by the Robert P. Gilham Wednesday evening.

Colonel Gregory Hanay of East Front street is entitled to the palm. According to his own statement he was shaved for the first time in his life in a barber shop by a real barber this week, and he is now 61 years old. In fact, it was the only time he was ever in a barber shop that he can remember. When he was a boy his mother cut his hair, and since he has been married his wife has performed that function. He has shaved himself and he never used any lather—just rubbed a little water on his face instead.

Yesterday afternoon "Shellbark" Craven rushed into the Police Court room, placed a bottle with some white substance in it and a stick with a blue label on it in front of Chief of Police Harry Ort and demanded a warrant for the arrest of a young man who had just attempted to dynamite him. He pointed to the bottle and stick as evidence, stating that the bottle contained nitro-glycerine and the stick was dynamite. Chief Ort was not many seconds in getting "Shell" and his outfit away from him, as it made one feel like it was the real stuff. Upon investigation it developed that the bottle contained whitewash and the stick was carbon, the whole affair being put up as a joke on "Shellbark." It came near driving him crazy.

There is no change in the condition of Mr. Thomas Guilfoyle, who is critically ill at his home in East Third street.

THIS LOOKS GOOD

Ion Arnold Squaring Up Some Debts He Left Behind

Some time last summer a young man by the name of Ion Arnold came to Maysville and after making several friends and staying some time he left, and it was claimed at the time that there were several creditors who desired to take a look at him. It was also said that he had borrowed money from his new-made friends, and they wanted to see him. Sometime after his departure he paid several of his debts here. Since which he has been forgotten. Yesterday, however, a young man here received a letter from a friend, and he told this remarkable story. He was seated at a table in a cafe in a city talking to a friend, when some one came in, tapped him on the shoulder and at the same time called him by name. He looked up, and it was Ion, who called him aside and gave him his money. The letter stated that Arnold was dressed as a fashion-plate and had a roll of money as large as his arm.

MAYBE, if the Louisville theater people would take the same active part in politics as is taken by the saloon-keepers, they too would be allowed to keep open on Sundays.

Just 39 years ago today the writer issued the first number of The Maysville Republican, predecessor to THE LEDGER; and the only advertisement that appeared in it which appears today is that of Heehinger & Co.

FRANCE has never forgiven Germany for the magnificent drubbing received at her hands in the Franco-Prussian War of 1871, and it looks like there would soon be another test of military strength. If it comes, there'll not be enough Frenchmen left to fight a first-class duel.

POLITICS puts strange fellows in the same bed. For several years Senator TILMAN of South Carolina has had a volcanic eruption every time he spoke of President ROOSEVELT; and now he appears in the Senate as the chief champion of the President's Railroad Rate Bill.

THE Democratic Lexow Committee which is investigating the payment of gratuities direct to the Republican County Treasurer by Banks in which he deposited public money, were somewhat surprised to find that they hadn't discovered a mare's nest. The system has been in vogue many years, covering the terms of several Democratic Treasurers. All the same, a species of "graft" that should be stopped.

THE people of Springfield, O., seem to be as unfriendly to murderous Negroes as the people of the Southern States—only a little more so; for beyond summary punishment of transgressors Southern mobs have not gone. In the Ohio city, however, the guilty have not only been lynched, but the houses of the innocent have been burned. The only safe way for the Negro, wherever he be, is to be a good, law-abiding citizen.

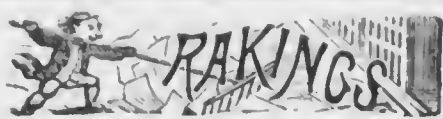

EDITOR PERRY of The Sun-Sentinel was dragged away from his beloved Winchester long enough to take a look at Maysville and her late Tobacco Fair; and here's what he has to say—

"Maysville is one of the oldest and most substantial cities in the state.

"It has a Government Building that is a model of convenience for the postal service.

"Two daily papers, THE LEDGER and The Bulletin. The representative of The Sun-Sentinel acknowledges his obligations to the Editors and other citizens. It is the only town he was ever in where he was not allowed to spend any money."

Come again, Bro. Bob.; come early and stay late,—on the same terms.

TO SETTLE A BET.

"Once, when I was a reporter," said David Belasco at a holiday dinner, "I spent two days with a gang of tramps in order to get material for an article on tramp life.

"These tramps were a merry lot. They had as many stories to tell as the end man of a minstrel show.

"The excellent mince pie that we have just been eating reminds me of a mince pie episode told by one of the wanderers.

"He said that a friend of his, one cold day in January, knocked at the kitchen door of a farmhouse.

"Well," said the farmer's wife. "You here again?"

"Yes, ma'am," said the tramp respectfully. "I want to know, ma'am, if you'll be kind enough to give me the recipe for that mince pie that I had here yesterday?"

"Well, the idea!" cried the farmer's wife. "I can't make man, what do you want that recipe for?"

"To settle a bet," replied the tramp. "My partner says you use three cups of Portland cement to one of molasses, but I claim it's only two and a half."

A FOOLISH PLAN

It's a joy to eat—I welcome my dinner hour; Because I rout indigestion with August Flower!

Constipation is the result of indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, loss of appetite, self-poisoning, anemia, emaciation, uric acid, neuralgia in various parts of the system, catarrhal inflammation of the intestinal canal and numerous other ailments that rob life of its pleasures if they do not finally rob you of life itself.

"I'm bound in the bowels," is a common expression of people who look miserable and are miserable—yet who persist in "letting nature take its course."

What a foolish plan, when nature could be aided by the use of Green's August Flower, which is nature's own remedy for constipation and all stomach ills.

August Flower gives new life to the liver and insures healthy stools.

WASHINGTON PERSONALS

WASHINGTON, February 28th, 1906.

Editor Ledger: Your correspondent in taking in Washington this week ran upon several Maysvillians. Among them were Dexter Kehoe, who is at present in the Treasury Department drawing down something like $1,800. Mr. Kehoe is in fine health and had many pleasant things to say about Maysville.

William Cady, the "all-round" print, is also from the "garden spot of Kentucky." He is now holding a fine "sit" in the G. P. O. and bids fair to live to be one hundred years old. He has a very attractive family and all seem to be "delighted" with life in the "White City."

Bruce Austin, who holds a good job down in the Job Branch of the G. P. O. at the Treasury Department, is one of the happiest Maysvillians here. He and Mrs. Austin are happily keeping house, and are "much to-home" to their friends when they call.

Charles Broese is in the Job Division of the big Printery, and is doing nicely. His son is also an attache of the "Works." Both are well pleased and it's hoped they are laying up something for a rainy day. That's a hard thing to do here—"weens tell you!"

In my rounds I visited Colonel Titus Ellis's cigar store on Pennsylvania avenue and found him to be a very busy man. He has a nice trade, and is one of Kentucky's best hustlers. He resigned his position as proofreader in the G. P. O.—one of the best paying places in the entire "Works,"—to go into business, and he has succeeded far beyond his fondest expectations.

The Kentucky Republican Club will hold its regular meeting Saturday night of this week. The Club appointed a very strong committee on the Powers collection, and it is said they have made fine progress. Henry Taylor, President of the Club, and besides being an orator—he is a hustler—told your scribe that Saturday's meeting would make a starting in regard to the "Powers Fund" that would astonish the entire membership. Mr. Taylor last October visited the cell of Mr. Powers in company with THE LEDGER reporter and promised that he would raise $2,000. This amount is assured. In connection with Mr. Taylor in the work is Colonel Milo Shanks, the founder of the Kentucky Republican Club. When Mr. Shanks started out in 1899 to organize the Club he could find nine people in Washington with nerve enough to say they were Republicans. How well he has succeeded you good Republicans in "Dear Old Kentucky" know. There is now a membership of over one hundred and all of them will return to vote for Senator Cox for Governor. If you will give me space I will take pleasure in giving a short sketch of the Kentucky Journalist who has been untiring in his efforts to make

How Kentuckians Are Talked About in the Nation's Capital

Kentucky and Kentuckians lead in the Capital City of our Nation.

Milo Shanks is a native of Madison county, Ky. At an early age he began an apprenticeship at the printing business, and became a capable member of the craft in the office of The Richmond (Ky.) Climax. Mr. Shanks founded The Richmond Pantagraph in 1894 and under his able and active direction the paper took a front rank among the Republican papers of the Bluegrass State. Although his employment in the Government Printing Office at Washington, D. C., has covered but a few years, Mr. Shanks's services have been important and he has performed every duty faithfully and conscientiously. His competency and courtesy have made him a valuable employee in Uncle Sam's big printery and popular with all. Mr. Shanks was assigned to the Library Branch of the Government Printing Office when that division was established a few years ago in the Congressional Library. He made a signal success of carrying out the plans of the Public Printer and the Librarian. His next assignment was to the foremanship of the Third Division, where he continued his good work. At the expansion of the force by removal into the new building (recently completed) Mr. Shanks was placed in charge of the Second Division, and as foreman has made a splendid record for competency and promptness in his work, producing a quantity of work, which was special and intricate, that reflected great credit upon Mr. Shanks and the men under his direction. He has been active in the affairs of Columbia Typographical Union, at Washington, and has served upon committees, where his ability and experience were of great benefit to the Union. As one of the charter members of the Kentucky Republican Club at the National Capital he has done valuable service for his party, serving as President, and is now Secretary-Treasurer of that organization. Mr. Shanks is a firm believer in fraternal societies, being a Mason and a member of the National Union. He is a member of Lafayette Chapter, No. 5, and Junior Steward of Washington Centennial Lodge No. 14, F. A. A. M. Mr. Shanks married Miss Annie Payne of Virginia, and two sons, Milo, junior, and Lee Payne have blessed the union.

Kentucky has reason to feel proud of Mr. Shanks, whose tact and ability has placed him in the forefront of the state's sons at the Nation's Capital. He is also an Elder in the Ninth Street Christian Church of this city and in every walk of life he carries with him the respect of those with whom he comes in contact.

The Augusta Postoffice is now up for "inspection" and it looks like Charles Gray may land the plum. His friends are "busy," and if there is anything in "pu"l Ginn will have to step down and out. But politics, Colonel Davis, "acis damned quar," and you can never tell just when you are "it." W. F. S.

Gasolino caused the burning of the Opera-house at Williamsburg, Pa., the death of one woman and the injury of several.

In every clime its colors are unfaded
Its fame has spread from sea to sea;

Consults A Physician

But does NOT Tell Him All.

Few women confide fully in a physician. They simply will not tell him all. That's why many doctors fail to cure female diseases.

Every woman dreads the ordeal of the physician's consulting room. A sensitive, refined woman shrinks from the searching questions and the physical examination!

It is not so in writing to Mrs. Pinkham. Thousands of women owe their present health and happiness (yes, and their good looks, too) to the fact that they have told all their physical troubles to Mrs. Pinkham and followed her advice and been cured of female diseases.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cures more women every year than any other medicine in the world. If you are in doubt about your case, write in perfect confidence to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. You will receive in reply a personal letter of advice free. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her cease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For three months I was sick in bed with female trouble and had four doctors, who all agreed that I must undergo an operation. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I submitted to an operation. I did so and am very glad to say that after I had used five bottles I was restored to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since. I am only too glad to commend your medicines, as they saved me from an operation which might have proved fatal.

Mrs. M. KUTTNER,
556 South Main St., Los Angeles, Cal.

She also profited by Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote you describing my symptoms (and tumor) and asked your advice. You replied and I followed all your directions fully and to-day am a well woman.

Saloonkeepers throughout the state are elated over the action of the House of Representatives in adopting an amendment to the State Revenue Bill providing for a reduction of the saloon license to $200 a year. Several Representatives were strongly in favor of a license of $500, but were defeated when a vote on the matter was taken. Hotel saloons will be charged $210 a year. This is a reduction of $25.

Voice of the People

MAYSVILLE, KY., February 27th, 1906.

To the Editor: THE LEDGER in its issue of the 27th gives its commendation to the remarks of those who are strong-minded enough to come out flat-footed in favor of lynching. This must be a painful surprise to those who believe in law and order. The provisions of the Constitution were proven in their entirety by the Civil War. The Constitution provides trial by jury to every person, regardless of sex, color or creed. Why are not these misguided wretches given this boon of constitutional government? Roosevelt says "To avenge a heinous crime by committing another heinous crime is to descend to the level of those who commit the crime." Likely this will be put down to Republicanism, therefore let us look at it from the point of the severity of the punishment, as the crime for which summary vengeance is taken is a capital one. Where, then, is the gain to those who stain their hands with the blood of human beings of animal instincts, for as a rule, they are past all sense of feeling when they receive their punishment by mob? And what can compare to the torture of the individual, who, knowing the time, awaits his doom? What can be more horrible to the thoughts of the person in the cell, with no hope of escape, the death watch by him, thinking of his crime, knowing beyond peradventure that he must die? What must be the retrospect of his life to him, with but a short time for repentance before he meets his Creator? If we do not allow these thoughts to him, then we allow him nothing but animal instincts, and must treat him on the principles of firmness and gentleness, for he is a human being. I do not lay great blame at the door of all who lend their hands to lynching, for if any one of us put ourselves in the position of those whose family are attacked in this manner, we cannot be surprised at their desire for vengeance. But when we see such men as Andrew D. White preach the gospel of lynching, then must mob law reign, for such as his is the guiding mind of the Nation.

In a few words, I do not say that lynching is not justifiable under certain circumstances, but I do wish to condemn in an uncertain way the justification of mob law by those who are in a position to do more good to those to whom they speak. Yours truly, H. G. S.

CONSUMPTION INCREASING

Average Now is Four Hundred Deaths Per Day.

Does the reader of this paper realize that this very day, in this country alone, four hundred homes are each made sad by the death of a victim of consumption? Tomorrow will be a repetition of today's calamity, and so it will go on until the people come to realize the fact that a very large number of these deaths are entirely unnecessary.

Consumption is both a contagious, and curable disease in its first stages. Yet many intelligent people do not realize this fact.

As our druggist, John C. Pecor, says "drugs and cough syrups for bronchial and lung troubles are only palliatives and do no permanent good; they may deaden the cough and stimulate the patient for a time, but they do not cure, and they usually upset the stomach and have a bad after effect."

Eminent physicians, however, agree that when the symptoms of lung trouble first appear, if the patient will obtain all the sunshine by day, and fresh air by night possible, eat sound breadstuffs, good meat, eggs and milk in abundance, and take the best cod liver oil preparation to be found, they will employ the surest means known for a cure.

The undersigned will guarantee Vinoli to be the best cod liver preparation. It is not a patent medicine, as everything in it is printed on the bottle, and it contains in a highly concentrated form all of the curative, body-building, medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cod livers, but no oil to clog the system, upset the stomach and retard its work. Any one can try Vinoli on our guarantee to refund their money if it fails to give satisfactory results.

Curt Jett, now in the Penitentiary serving a life sentence for the murder of J. B. Marcum, will be tried at Cynthiana soon on the charge of murdering James Cockrell three years ago. J. J. Fryer, who was State's Attorney when the case was tried two years ago, declines to sit, and Governor Beckham will name another trial judge.

The race riot is at an end at Springfield, O. Half a dozen persons were variously injured, and more than a dozen Negro dwellings stoned and wrecked.

To prevent collision between a freight and a passenger train going at 45 miles an hour, the Towerman at Riverside, just below Cincinnati, derailed the passenger. The engine, tender and baggage coach were overturned, the Engineer being caught under the tender but not seriously hurt. If the quick-witted Towerman hadn't acted, a collision was inevitable, with probable heavy loss of life.

TERRIBLE ITCHING SCALP HUMOR

Badly Affected With Sores and Crusts—Extended Down Behind the Ears—Some Years Later Painful and Itching Pustules Broke Out on Lower Part of Body—Son Also Affected.

A TRIPLE CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"About ten years ago my scalp became badly affected with sore and itching humors, crusts, etc., and extending down behind the ears. My hair came out in places also. I was greatly troubled; understood it was eczema. Tried various remedies, so called, without effect. Saw your Cuticura advertisement, and got them at once. Applied them as to directions, etc., and after two weeks, I think, of use, was clear as a whistle."

"I have to state also that late last fall, October and November, 1904, I was suddenly afflicted with a bad eruption, painful and itching pustules over the lower part of the body. I suffered dreadfully. In two months, under the skillful treatment of my doctor, conjoined with Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, I found myself cured."

"Six years ago my son was laid up with a severe cold, a hard cough, and finally painful eruption all over the body. I procured the Cuticura Remedies as soon as possible, and after his faithful use of same was as well as ever in two weeks, as well as I can recall. He has never had a return of the illness, as far as I know."

"I have always been pleased to commend the Cuticura Remedies, and testify as to their efficacy. I am a veteran of the late Civil War, '61-'65, between seventy and eighty years of age. Yours truly, H. M. F. Weiss, Rosemond, Christian Co., Ill., Aug. 31, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every humor from Impure to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, 25c. Ointment, 50c. Resolvent, 50c. SHOES Must Change Owners!

At once. We name prices to make them yours. See the stocks of elegant Shoes on our Bargain Tables, and come now while we have two stocks in one; two pairs for the price of one. This is one of the greatest Shoe Sales Maysville has ever seen, and you will buy several pairs if you know the quality of Shoes that are going at the price. Such bargains can only be found at

COHEN'S

Great Western Shoe Store.
